2009 Advanced Discipleship Training

Evening Classes (Each Tuesday from 6:00 PM – 9:30 PM)

January 13th – November 17th

Total cost is $1400.00

The Advanced Discipleship Training (ADT) is an intensive year-long program in Christian counseling and discipleship. The purpose of the ADT is to provide a deeper and more comprehensive understanding of the identification truths (i.e. Romans 5-8), to teach the use of these truths in a counseling framework and to provide an environment to experience these truths personally.

The ADT is designed for Christian leaders, Pastors, and any individual wanting to learn more about helping others. In the process, the students will learn more about themselves.

The classes are held at the GraceLife office and include:
